Changes in Privacy Policy

Company wants you to be always aware of what personal information we collect, how we use it and under what circumstances we disclose it. All personal information, as further described below, that we collect and maintain will be subject to the version of the Privacy Policy in effect at the time of such collection. COMPANY reserves the right to change the Privacy Policy from time to time at its sole discretion and will prominently post any material changes on the home page of the Service. You will be given the opportunity to opt-out. If as the result of such changes, you want to alter the ways in which COMPANY is allowed to use your personal information, you can do so by following the procedure described in the Updating Your Personal Preferences section of this Privacy Policy (below). You will be deemed to have been made aware of, and will be subject to, the changes to the Privacy Policy by your continued use of the Service after such change has been posted for thirty (30) days.

Third Party Services

Company does not control the information collection and distribution policies on Internet domains other than those Internet domains that are under the control of Company itself. When you are on the Service or Website, you may be directed to other sites that are beyond our control. Company is not responsible for any use of the information including click-stream data created when using such third party sites.

The Service or Website may also contain advertising and other links to other web sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those other sites. Also we do not send random marketing emails to personal email addresses. The Service or Website may contain hyper links to external web sites owned and operated by third parties. Company has no control over or association with such third party sites and Company is not responsible for the accuracy, completeness and quality of the information contained within them. Any and all contents on these external web sites do not reflect products, services or information provided by Company. You should direct any concerns regarding any external link to the site administrator of such site.

We also use third-party advertising companies to serve ads when you visit our Service or Website. These companies may use general information about your visits to this and/or other services in order to provide advertisements about goods and services of interest to you. If you would like more information about this practice and to know your choices about not having this information used by these companies, direct such concerns regarding to the respective company's administrator.

We demand from all our partners providing targeting data to implement an opt-out for any users that do not want to be tracked or targeted with advertisers.

Your information may be collected by Advertising IDs for mobile targeting. You may reset your Advertising IDs any time with the following instructions:

iOS - <https://support.apple.com/en-us/HT202074>

Android - <https://support.google.com/ads/answer/2662922?hl=en>

Third Party Content

When you are on the Service, certain content may be served by a third party. These third parties may also drop their own cookies and/or use web beacons, which may be used to identify some of your preferences or to recognize you if you have previously had contact with them. We do not control the use of such technology by third parties, the information they collect, or how they use such information.

Legal Issues

The Service or Website may be subject to the laws of various jurisdictions. The Company will disclose personally identifiable information without your permission when required by law, or in good faith belief that such action is necessary to investigate or protect against harmful activities to the Company guests, visitors, associates, or property (including Service and Website), or to others. As mentioned above, laws related to personal identifiable information vary by country.

The Company may be required by law enforcement or judicial authorities to provide personally identifiable information to appropriate governmental authorities. If requested by law enforcement or judicial authorities, we will provide this information upon receipt of the appropriate documentation. The Company may also provide information to law enforcement to protect its property and the health and safety of individuals as permitted by statute.

B. COLLECTED INFORMATION Browsing

The Service does not collect personally identifiable information from your computer when you browse the Service and request pages from our servers. This means that, unless you voluntarily and knowingly provide us with personally identifiable information, we will not know your name, your e-mail address, or any other personally identifiable information. We collect such information in order to make our Service function correctly and provide you the functionality that you see on this Service, as our servers use this information to deliver to you the pages on this Service. We also use this information to better understand how visitors use our Service and how we can better tune our Service, its contents and functionality to meet your needs.

Information We Collect

As a visitor to this Service, you can engage in many activities without providing any personal information as described above in the Browsing section of this Privacy Policy (above). In connection with subscribing to the services available on the Service or other activities, such as utilizing online software applications or purchasing or downloading any of the products and services available on the Services or Website, the Company may ask you to voluntarily supply us with certain information about yourself by filling out and submitting an online form. It is completely optional for you to engage in these activities and/or make any purchases. If you elect to engage in these activities or make purchases, however, the Company may ask that you provide us personal information, defined as any information that identifies or can be used to identify, contact, or locate the person to whom such information pertains, including but not limited to your first and last name, mailing address (including ZIP code), e-mail address, employer, and other personal information. This information is requested in conjunction with the purchase and registration of our Service.

In addition, as noted below, minimum information is requested if you choose to subscribe to product updates.

You never have to answer any questions, and you can decline this exchange of information at any time. However, if you should choose to withhold requested information, we may not be able to provide you with some of the services dependent upon the collection of this information. Depending upon the activity, some of the information that we ask you to provide is identified as mandatory and some as voluntary. If you do not provide the mandatory data with respect to a particular activity or purchase, you will not be able to engage in that activity or make such a purchase. Company will inform you of the mandatory and/or optional character of the requested and/or required information.

Company is the sole owner of the information it gathers on the Service. Company will only share your information with outside parties in ways that are described in this Privacy Policy or if we are required to do so by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary in order to conform to the edicts of the law, cooperate with law enforcement agencies, or comply with a legal process served on the Service and the subsequent legislation.

When you use the Service or Website, Company or third parties authorized by Company may also collect certain technical and routing information about your computer to facilitate your use of the Service or Website and its services. When you surf the Internet, your Internet browser (such as Mozilla Firefox, Microsoft Internet Explorer, Safari or other) automatically transmits some information to Company every time you access content on one of our internet domains within the Service or Website. Examples of such information include the URL of the Web page you were just on (known as the "Refer"), the IP (or Internet Protocol; with the last byte cleared) address of the computer you are using, or the browser version you are using to access our site, width and height of your device, link of viewed website. All of this information may be collected by Company and used to help improve our offerings to you.

We use such data to facilitate and track your use of the Service or Website and its services. Company also uses such environmental variables to measure traffic patterns on the Service or Website. Without expressly informing you in each particular circumstance, we do not match such information with any of your personal information.

When you submit personal information to Company through this Service or Website or related applications (e.g. mobile application), you understand and agree that this information may be transferred across national boundaries and may be stored and processed in any of the countries in which Company, its affiliates, subsidiaries and third party partners maintain offices. You also acknowledge that in certain countries or with respect to certain activities, the collection, transferring, storage, and processing of your information may be undertaken by trusted vendors of Company. Such vendors are bound by contract not to use your personal information for their own purposes or provide it to any third parties.

Company may establish relationships with various service providers whose services may become available to you from Service or Website or from other Services that are linked to this Service. Typically, these providers would offer services that Company customers might find useful, such as those that can be used in conjunction with Company services and products. In order to use those services, you may be required to provide personal information to the providers. Unless expressly provided to the contrary, personal information that you provide while you are visiting a provider's service will be subject to the privacy policy posted on such site, and personal information that you provide while on this Service or Website in conjunction with a provider's service will be subject to this Privacy Policy. For instance, the credit card information entered as part of the filling out the purchase form or registration process is collected by the third parties registration and/or merchant services and subject to their respective privacy policies. You should be aware that our agreements with these service providers often provide that they will share with Company personal information collected from you. In such instances, Company may use this information in a manner consistent with this Privacy Policy.

Personal Account

At your choice, you may create a personal account containing your personal information. A personal account is required for use of the services provided on the Service. You can create a new account directly on the Service or log in through your account located on the partner's web sites. In that case, the activity of our Service will be displayed on the partner's web sites. Partner's web sites already integrated into our Service will be offered while entering to our web site or applications. When you create a personal account, some information about your account activity will be provided to other users of Company. For instance, other users may be able to view which content you have accessed via the Service. You can access, review and update your personal account information online via the Service.

You have the right to access and change your personal information at any time by logging into your personal account, where you can view and make changes to your personal information.

The legal basis for this processing is the Company's legitimate interests and the legal requirements to which it is subject to on an ongoing basis for the performance of a contract between you and us and/or taking steps, at your request, to enter into such a contract.
 - (x) Data on specifications and location of your device used for ad targeting which we receive directly or indirectly. The legal basis for such processing is your consent.
(i) to (x) being "Relevant Data")

The Company may also process any of your personal data identified in the other provisions of this policy where necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, whether in court proceedings or in an administrative or out-of-court procedure.

In addition to the specific purposes for which the Company may process your personal data, the Company may also process any of your personal data where such processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the Company is subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person.

Please do not supply any other person's personal data to us, unless the Company request in writing that you do so.

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

Company does use the services of third parties as independent contractors on behalf of Company. You may also use your third-party login accounts and passwords (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, Google or other) in order to register and login to the Service and use Company's services. These parties are contractually prohibited from using personally identifiable information for any purpose other than for the purpose Company specifies. We do provide non-personally identifiable information to certain service providers for their use on an aggregated basis for the purpose of performing their contractual obligations to us. We prohibit the sale or transfer of personal information to entities outside of the Company's affiliates for their use without your approval.

Company may disclose your personally identifiable information if we believe in good faith that we are required to do so in order to comply with applicable law, a subpoena, or other legal process. Company may also disclose personally identifiable information when we have reason to believe that disclosing this information is necessary to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be violating this Privacy Policy, the terms of your agreements with the Company or to protect the safety of our users and the public or under confidentiality and licensing agreements with certain third parties which assist us in developing, operating and maintaining the Service and its content.

In the event that all or substantially all of Company's stock and/or all or substantially all assets are transferred or sold to another entity, Company may transfer personally identifiable information to the acquiring entity. If, as a result of such a business transition, your personally identifiable information will be used in a materially different manner, you will be given choice consistent with our policy regarding notification of changes.

the Company may disclose any or all of Relevant Data to:

- (a) any member of the Company's group of companies (this means the Company's subsidiaries, ultimate holding company and all its subsidiaries) insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy; and
- (b) to the Company's insurers and/or professional advisers insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes of obtaining and maintaining insurance coverage, managing risks, obtaining professional advice and managing legal disputes.
- (c) subcontractors, insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes of those subcontractors performing their obligations to the Company to allow the Company to provide the Service.
- (d) the Company's partners, including but not limited to each relevant payment processor, advertiser or ad network.

Financial transactions relating to the Service are handled by the Company's payment services providers. The Company will share transaction data with the Company's payment services providers only to the extent necessary for the purposes of processing your payments, refunding such payments and dealing with complaints and queries relating to such payments and refunds.

International transfers of your personal data

In this section, the Company provide information about the circumstances in which your personal data may be transferred to our third party partners as data processors, who are located in any country provided that such recipient ensured the adequate level of personal data protection or received the data based on your consent.

Choices Available to You

You can always choose whether or not to disclose personally identifiable information and that choice will not prevent you from using the Service. Please note, however, if you should choose to withhold requested information, we may not be able to provide you with some of the services dependent upon the collection of this information and you will be given an opportunity to “opt-in” and make your preference choices for any items that are optional and which are not prerequisite for our rendering such services.

E-mail communication

While using the Service, you may be submitted to periodic e-mail mailouts on you e-mail address. Such e-mail may contain information on Company updates, advertising materials and other important information about Company.

You can choose at anytime to opt out of receiving emails from Company or from having your personally identifiable information shared with selected companies. If you want to opt out, you can do so by editing your preferences with respect to email or the sharing of information. If you elect to “opt out” we will not, as applicable, share your personal information with third parties or send you emails. However, we may continue to use your personal information for internal purposes, to enhance your user experience or as necessary to administer the site or comply with applicable law, or for the purpose of delivery of important non-advertising information.

Company mailouts may be performed on daily, weekly or monthly basis, or without any periodic schedule.

We reserve the right to send a one-time registration confirmation email, and infrequent Service Alert messages to users to inform them of specific changes that may impact their ability to use a service they have previously signed up for, regardless of email contact opt-in status. We also reserve the right to contact you if compelled to do so as part of a legal proceeding or if there has been a violation of any applicable licensing, warranty and purchase agreements.

Company is retaining these rights because in limited cases we feel that we may need the right to contact you as a matter of law or regarding matters that will be important to you. These rights do not allow us to contact you to market a new or existing service if you have asked us not to do so, and issuance of these types of communications is rare.

If you do not wish to receive e-mails with updates and information, please contact us via email. Besides that you may opt-out in every e-mail message by following the steps, specified in such message. In common, unsubscribe link is placed at the bottom of the letter. You may also opt-out online by updating your personal account as described in the Updating Your Personal References section of this Privacy Policy (above).

If you wish to opt out of receiving emails, the sharing or retention of any personal identification information, or otherwise change your personal preferences, you may contact Company by specified email.

To ensure that your request is honored, you must provide Company with information sufficient for us to accurately identify and access your records. The information we require is your full name and the email address you provided to Company. Company reserves the right to contact you to verify that we have accurately identified your record.

Cookies

Our Service uses “cookie” technology. “Cookies” are short pieces of data generated by a web server that a Service stores on a user’s computer. Certain pages on our Service may require the use of a cookie for purposes of keeping information you enter on multiple pages together. Cookies also enable us to customize our Service and offerings to your needs and provide you with a better online experience with us.

The types of cookies that we use are referred to as “session” cookies and “persistent” cookies. Session cookies are temporary and are automatically deleted once you leave the Service. Persistent cookies remain on your computer hard drive until you delete them. We do not use cookies to gather information concerning your visits to other Services, nor ascertain any personally identifiable information about you apart from what you voluntarily provide us in your dealings with Company. Cookies do not, under ordinary circumstances, corrupt or damage your computer, programs, or computer files.

In addition, the service providers we use to serve and host our advertisements, and/or deliver our e-mails, use session and persistent cookies, to track the number of times the Service is accessed and whether the site was accessed from an advertisement. A cookie is placed on your computer only if and when you click on an advertisement or open the email. The cookie generated from the advertisement or e-mail does not contain any personally identifiable information and will remain on your hard drive until you delete it.

You may set your browser to block cookies (consult the instructions for your particular browser on how to do this), although doing so may adversely affect your ability to perform certain transactions, use certain functionality and access certain content on our Service.

The cookies remember information about your activities on the website and allow the Company to use this information to remember choices you've made on the website. This enables you to avoid submission of your login and password on each browsing session and to save the preferences you've made on the website. The website will ask you if you'd like to use cookies or you can disable this feature in your browser settings. In case if the website will contain advertisement the data on your interaction with such advertisement may be provided to such advertisers provided that you interacted with such advertisement.

Cookies are uniquely assigned to each visitor, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to the visitor. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to a visitor's device.

Persistent cookies remain on a visitor's device for a set period of time specified in the cookie. They are activated each time that the visitor visits the website that created that particular cookie.

Session cookies are temporary. They allow website operators to link the actions of a visitor during a browser session. A browser session starts when a visitor opens a browser window and finishes when they close it. Once you close the browser, all session cookies are deleted.

Strictly necessary cookies are essential to navigate around a website and to use its features. Without them, visitors would not be able to use basic services like registration. These cookies do not gather information about visitors that could be used for marketing or remembering where a visitor has been on the internet.

Performance cookies collect anonymous data for statistical purposes on how visitors use a website, they don't contain personal information, and are used to improve the visitor experience.

Functionality cookies allow visitors to customize how a website looks for them: they can remember usernames, language preferences and regions.

Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies and to delete cookies. The methods for doing so vary from browser to browser, and from version to version. You can however obtain up-to-date information about blocking and deleting cookies via these links:

- (d) a process for regularly testing, assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of technical and organizational measures for ensuring the security of the processing.

Personal data is processed for as long as the relevant legal basis for processing exists.

Your Rights

Besides your rights stipulated above you have the following rights:

- to request rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data or to object to such processing;
- to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you consider violation of your rights;
- to correct your inaccurate data;
- to erase your data;
- to restrict processing of your data;
- to demand provision of your data to you in readable form.

Please be aware that your rights might be subject to wider interpretation and derogations provided by applicable law. You may contact us any time for further guidance.

Consent

The website will enable you to provide consent to data processing and opt out of such processing. Opt out may result in unavailability of the website functions to you. The consent interface will provide you with the all information required to make an informed and voluntary consent.

D. PRIVACY-RELATED INQUIRIES AND COMPLAINTS

Company takes and addresses its users' privacy concerns with utmost respect and attention. If you believe that there was an instance of non-compliance with this Privacy Policy with regard to your personal information or you have other related inquiries or concerns, you may write or contact Company at specified email.

In your message, please describe in as much detail as possible the nature of your inquiry or the ways in which you believe that the Privacy Policy has not been complied with. We will investigate your inquiry or complaint promptly.

Please note that if you provide Company with inconsistent privacy preferences (for example, by indicating on one occasion that third parties may contact you with marketing offers and indicating on another occasion that they may not), Company cannot guarantee that your most recent privacy preference will be honored.
